Vicuña

Located in the Elqui province, it is the largest commune in Coquimbo region with a Surface of 7.694 km. It limits to the west with La Serena, La Higuera, and Andacollo communes.

To the south, with Paihuano and Rio Hurtado, and to the east with Argentina through Agua Negra International Pass.

The rural localities are part of the cultural and natural patrimony of the territory, all of them provide several attractions related to sports, astronomical and heritage tourism.

Vicuña offers many tourist attractions that surprise all visitors. They can be mainly found in the historical center around Gabriela Mistral Square.
